DBMG - OUR ROOTS

The Diablo Black Men's Group began in the mid 1990's as an outlet for Diablo Valley men. By 1999, the group had evolved into an organization of men who wanted to use their collective influence to enhance the lives of the members and families as well as to make a contribution to the community in which they live. Members are encouraged to appreciate liberty and all that it encompasses, including embracing community involvement.

DBMG is committed to support activities with the goal of improving the health and welfare of our citizenry. DBMG was actively involved in promoting prostate cancer awareness and screening in collaboration with the Alta Bates Summit Ethnic Health Institute and American Cancer Society with support from the Chevron/Texaco Corporation. Additionally, DBMG helps socially and economically challenged Bay Area youth pursue cultural and educational opportunities through our scholarship program.

OUR MISSION

To promote fellowship among Black men, to help African Americans and other minorities in the Diablo Valley actualize full citizenship, including liberty, good health, social equality and economic vitality.

TONIGHT'S MISTRESS OF CEREMONIES

VALERIE COLEMAN MORRIS

Valerie Coleman Morris is considered a Bay Area native when it comes to television news. She began her career in the early 70s in San Francisco at KRON-TV as a reporter and then KGO-TV as a long time anchor. She was part of the Van Amburg/Jerry Jensen/Pete Giddings news team that branded "happy talk" as a news genre.

Morris is a former CNN domestic and international business anchor, three-time Emmy Award winner, part of the KCBS Radio Peabody Award winning team coverage of the 1989 San Francisco earthquake and creator of the long running radio column "With the Family in Mind", which airs nationally on CBS Network Radio.

During her years at CNN, Valerie's daily reports were seen by more than 290 million households, businesses and airport networks.

Morris now focuses on financial literacy as an aspect of business and social economics. Her "mind over money matters" approach gives the thought process and mindset for a financial behavioral change: re-calculating your relationship with your personal money.

She considered the financial journalist/educator with a unique point of view about money. Her first book "IT'S YOUR MONEY SO TAKE IT PERSONALLY ®" provides doable, incremental ways for individuals and families to recover from the impact of the recession in a sustainable way. It is available at Book Passage, Marcus Bookstores, Barnes and Noble and Amazon.com.

Feel free to join Valerie on Twitter (@HerMoneyTalks and Facebook (Valerie Coleman Morris) for upcoming events as well as financial tips. Find her "With the Family in Mind" radio podcasts at www.valeriecolemanmorris.com .

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Good Evening and Happy Holidays!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to our fourteenth annual Diablo Black Men's Group Christmas Gala. I hope you have a great time and thank you for supporting our mission and our scholarship program.

Tonight is a special night for DBMG. Our theme for this year is "The Future is Now". The theme is fitting for tonight as this will be my last official event serving as chairman. The future of DBMG is now, right now.

As I reflect back over the last two years, I am happy to say that our membership is rebounding and our presents in the community has increased. Our scholarship program continues to grow as more high schools and communities recognize and spread that word of DBMG's commitment to supporting our students. It is our plan to increase the number of $2,500 scholarships awarded from four to five next year. It is the support you provide that allows us to continue to grow and help our students maximize their potential.

Our future is now and bright. Our new chairman brings to DBMG many years of experience in managing non-profit organizations and providing leadership toward raising funds to support our scholarship program and other community based programs. Spencer Tyrus will lead this organization to the next level.

I am very honored to have served as Chairman of DBMG and I look forward to continuing to serve the organization for years to come.

Thank you for attending tonight's Christmas Gala. I wish you and your families a happy holiday season and prosperous new year.

Warm Regards,

Timothy F. Evans—Chairman of DBMG

CHAIRMAN ELECT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to our 14th Annual Christmas Gala, I trust you will enjoy this elegant event, which will include a Silent Auction, dinner, live music, dancing, many other fun activities and fellowship with DBMG members and friends. As incoming Chairman of the Diablo Black Men's Group for 2013 and 2014, I am looking forward to continuing our mission and traditions, while elevating the organization to new heights.

The DBMG has provided 18 scholarships to young college-bound African American males from the Diablo Valley since 2007. Our goal is to select outstanding students within our community, provide assistance in their college growth through mentoring relationships and establishing opportunities for them to give back to our community.

During the past four years, the DBMG has remained steadfast to its core mission even though the U.S. economy reached its lowest levels since the Great Depression. During this period, we have awarded eighteen $2,500 scholarships to exceptional young African American men from our immediate community. We maintained our core belief, and have continued fellowship among Black men and other minorities, with the focus on citizenship, liberty, health, social equality, and economic vitality.

As we move into my two year term as the Chairman of the Diablo Black Men's Group, I am truly excited about the tremendous opportunities and potential for the DBMG organization. My vision is to enhance the DBMG's visibility within the Diablo Valley Community by increasing our membership, focusing on African American families, and strengthening educational opportunities for our youth in the Diablo Valley Community. Our committees will continue to focus on their key areas of expertise and provide out-reach and a supportive and caring voice for our community.

We're always looking for a 'few good men' to join our organization to help us further our history, commitment, and legacy which begin in 1999. This legacy has evolve into an organization of men who have collectively built a strong bond amongst its members and families, as well as make a positive contribution to the community in which we live. If you have an interest in DBMG, please contact a DBMG member or visit our website (www.DBMG.org).

Best wishes to you and your family over the holiday season and throughout the new year.

Regards,
Spencer Tyrus

TONIGHT'S AUCTIONEER

STEVEN GODFRYD

PACIFIC AUCTION COMPANY

Steven Godfryd is the founder and president of the Pacific Auction Company. He organizes and conducts over 200 fundraising auctions annually, earning him the moniker of “hardest working auctioneer in the fundraising business”. Having worked as a professional non-profit fundraiser for 15 years, the combination of being both an auctioneer and a fundraiser makes him a powerful force in encouraging people to spend generously at fundraising events. He has literally generated millions of dollars for charitable organizations, and has been recognized by industry groups for his outstanding work. Steve became an auctioneer the old fashioned way, by studying auctioneers. He has a reverence for country cattle callers and their high-speed auction patter, yet appreciates the sophistication of auctioneers at the worlds finest auction houses such as Christie's & Sotheby's. His style is a bit flashy, and a true hybrid of old-fashioned country combined with high-brow city flare.

Steve's diverse background reflects his passion for giving and helping others. He served as a beekeeper in the Peace Corps in Paraguay, where he taught impoverished farmers how to produce honey as a secondary income generating activity. After three years in Paraguay, he subsequently worked in Brazil, Argentina, Chile & Nicaragua, spending a total of seven years working with bees and rural people in Latin America. LIFT EV'RY VOICE AND SING

by James Weldon Johnson

*Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring.
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise,
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.*

*Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last,
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.*

*God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might,
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
Shadowed beneath thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.*
